All meetings of the Board, committees, boards and commissions shall be held in public buildings or any place accessible to members of the public and shall be “open sessions” as provided by s. 19.83, Wis. Stats. To that end:

1. The Board of Supervisors, committees, boards and commissions shall comply with the Open Meeting Law. Every meeting shall be preceded by a public notice. Discussion shall be held and action shall be initiated, deliberated upon and acted upon only in open session.
2. Every public notice of a meeting of board meeting, standing or ad hoc committees shall set forth the time, date, place and subject matter of the meeting, including the intended consideration at any contemplated closed session. This motion may not be adopted unless the Chair announces to those present at the meeting the nature of the business to be considered in closed session and the specific statutory exemption by which such closed session is claimed. Such announcement will be recorded in the minutes. No business may be taken up at any closed session except that which relates to matters germane to the closed session. If the agenda does not give notice of a closed session a member who believes that the agenda item under discussion in an open session should be discussed in closed session may make a motion to convene in closed session. In such case, the closed session will be placed at the end of the agenda. This provision should be used sparingly.

A closed session may be held for any of the following purposes:

4. Considering strategy for crime detection or prevention.

5. Deliberating or negotiating the purchase of public properties, the investing of public funds, or conducting other specific public business, whenever competitive or bargaining reasons require a closed session.

7. Conferring with county legal counsel who is rendering oral or written advice concerning strategy to be adopted by the body with respect to litigation.
8. Consideration of requests for confidential written advice from the government accountability board or from any county or municipal ethics board.

No member of the county board shall be excluded from any closed session of the County Board or any standing committee of the Board. No person attending a closed session shall divulge any information pertaining to such closed session without specific authorization to do so. Penalties for violation of the secrecy of a legal closed session include censure and payment of damages the Board suffers by reason the unlawful breach of secrecy.

The minutes, records, proceedings and papers of a closed session shall be privileged and shall not be made available to the public unless authorized by the County Board, committee, board, or commission involved until such time as the purpose necessitating such closed session no longer exists.

Sawyer County Board of Supervisors Code of Ethics

Such action will improve the standards of public service. Such action will straighten the faith and confidence of the citizens of Sawyer County in their county board members.

Wisconsin State Statute Section 946.13 sets forth conduct which is deemed unlawful. This code is not a criminal code. This code covers acts which may not be illegal but which might cast doubt on the integrity of the Board and on County Board Members.

Generally, a conflict of interest may occur if:

1. The Board Member or any member of their family may receive a financial or other significant benefit as a result of their position on the county board. Significant benefit is anything of value that could reasonably be expected to influence a board members official action or judgement, or could reasonably be considered as a reward for any official action or inaction.
2. The Board Member has the ability to influence a decision for personal gain or advantage.
3. The Board Member has a financial or other significant interest, which impairs or might appear to impair the individual's independence in the discharge of their responsibilities as a Board Member.

Although each circumstance will be different, some examples of conflict of interests include:

1. Self-benefit. Using your position or relationship as a board member to promote your own interests or those of your family.
2. Influence peddling. Soliciting or receiving benefits for yourself or your family from outside entities in exchange for using your influence to advance the interests of that entity within the County operations.
3. Other business relationships and dealings. Voting for purchases or contracts with entities in which you or your family have a significant financial or other interest or relationship.
4. Outside commitments. Participating in social or political activities is not restricted as long as you participate as an individual or as requested by the Chair or board.
5. Use of Sawyer County property for personal advantage. Using or taking Sawyer County resources, including facilities, equipment, personnel and supplies for private use or other unauthorized use
6. Recording or reporting false information. Misrepresenting, withholding or falsifying relevant information required to be reported to external parties or used internally for decision-making purposes in order to derive personal benefit
7. Using inside information. Using information obtained as a board member to promote your own interests or those of your family
8. Closed session proceedings. Disclosing information discussed in closed sessions to others not part of the closed session.

Real or potential conflicts of interest should be disclosed to the Ethics Board. When deciding what kind of relationships should be disclosed consider the situation from the perspective of an outsider and whether the relationship is of such a nature that it could raise an allegation of an apparent or actual conflict of interest. When making the decision about disclosure, err on the side of transparency. This will alleviate or avoid future misunderstandings.

Any county board member having a conflict of interest in any matter before the board should disclose that conflict and refrain from voting. Any Board Member who has reason to believe that the vote of another Board Member would be a conflict of interest shall request that board member to abstain from voting.

The recourse of the Board Member requested to abstain from voting is to request a ruling from the Chair. Any Board Member dissatisfied with the Chair's decision has the right to apply for a hearing before the Ethics Board.

Each Board Member will be required to annually sign a Conflict of Interest Statement. Each Board Member is required to disclose to the Ethics Board real or perceived conflicts that arise after the Conflict of Interest Statement is submitted.

The Ethics Board will be appointed by the County Administrator with confirmation by a majority of Board Members voting.

Since the Ethics Board deliberations deal with personnel matters, the Ethic Committee shall deliberate in closed session. All deliberations of the Ethics Board will be documented. This documentation and the Conflict of Interest Statements are open for inspection by any Board Member on the condition items contained therein will not be disclosed to any person not on the Board.

Each year, all Board Members will be required to sign a Conflict of Interest Statement similar to Appendix B.
